Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Mrs. Newman is the owner of the Wine Social. Mrs. Newman spends less than 10% of her time per month in this position but never during trading hours.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mrs. Newman has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed in Item 4 above.

At TAN, Mrs. Newman receives compensation for providing investment advisory services that is primarily based on a percentage of fees charged on assets under management for investment management services and/or a percentage of fees charged for financial planning and consulting services.

Mrs. Newman may, from time to time, receive additional compensation or other economic benefits; such as, sales awards, recruiting and training support services, expense reimbursement, software, bonuses or non-cash compensation (e.g., attend sales conferences and other recognition events) for providing investment advisory products or services.

Mrs. Newman may be eligible to receive compensation for referring individuals who become Advisory Persons of Thrivent. The compensation paid to the referring Advisory Persons is based on the referred individuals becoming Advisory Persons of Thrivent and revenue from investment advisory fees earned by them.

In certain instances, TAN may provide for a cash bonus or other economic benefit to Mrs. Newman based on the number of new clients that purchase certain eligible products and services, including advisory products and services. This additional compensation is based on the number of Mrs. Newman's new clients who become members of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans because the clients bought a membership-eligible product, retention of assets, and or their sales volume of specific products and services.
