Michelle Clary, CFP®, CLU®, ChFC®, RICP®, AEP®, on the occasion said, “The nomination alone was an honor, but I truly didn’t expect to win this award. One of my most cherished mentors regularly counseled me years ago that ‘the best in the business have a head of a capitalist and the heart of a social worker.’ It is the ultimate pinnacle in this career when we are not only able to serve our clients as they navigate life’s journey, but also give back to the charitable organizations about which we are passionate. We are proud of these awards, but more importantly they inspire us to do more and better for our communities and our clients, so thanks to everyone for their trust and partnership! These awards come because of the quality of the clients and community we serve!”
